

Secretary of Aging Visits Local Agency

CLEARFIELD - October 16, 2008. Newly appointed Secretary of Aging, John Michael Hall, made a stop at the Clearfield County Area Agency on Aging recently for in impromptu visit. Hall was on a “Listening Tour” of several area agencies on aging in the area to solicit input on various issues as well as to see their operations first-hand. “Every AAA has a jewel they are proud of,” Hall commented. “I want to acknowledge their accomplishments and their dedication in person.”

Secretary of Aging, John Michael Hall (right) greets Amanda LeGars, Protective Services Supervisor for the Clearfield County Agency on Aging, at an impromptu meeting recently.

While visiting at the corporate headquarters in Clearfield, the Secretary engaged in dialogue with the agency’s directors and supervisors, discussing issues of interest to the staff. “The agenda is yours,” he stated.

Following the meeting, Hall, who was accompanied by PA Department of Aging staff, then toured the agency’s Meal Production and Distribution Facility in the Technology Park. Mary Murphy, Community Supervisor for the Agency, described in detail how the meal production process and delivery system works. The Secretary indicated he had not ever seen the type of equipment that this agency uses in its daily routine. “This gives me all kinds of ideas,” he noted as he was leaving.